

The Complaint

Dear Santa,

I would like to make a complaint,
because my present was really bad.
You might think I'm ungrateful,
but I have a good reason to be mad.

The elf that packed my present should never have been hired.
He really ruined my Christmas,
so I believe he should be fired.

To make up for my suffering
you should send me another toy.
I don't need this silly doll
and that's because I am a boy.

Regards,

David
